

Announcing: Ground-breaking seminar in antiterrorism training!

This revealing seminar will introduce you to breakthrough, hands-on training in community policing and problem solving.

Limited to the first 63 reservations.

*Dec 3-4, 2009: "Vulnerability Assessments"

Remember how much the civilian sector has relied upon the Department of Homeland Security to provide help in the fight against terrorism? Well, we've developed a focused and user-friendly vulnerability assessment program designed just for YOU: Law enforcement officers and other first responders who sign up for this seminar. Wouldn't it be amazing if the history of terrorism will help your local community and teach your organization a method of conducting risk assessments? You will learn skill sets and be instructed on how to use proven and valuable tools to determine the vulnerability of assets in your community. When you sign up for this seminar, you will discover how to develop a pertinent and useful outreach program designed to educate and involve members of your community in our Nation's fight against terrorism.
